Born on May 19, 1934, to Wayne & Martha (Holte) Hines, in Detroit Lakes, DuWayne Warner Hines grew up in Barnesville, Minnesota, a town he proudly called home. He attended Barnesville High School where he enjoyed playing on the basketball team. He then joined the army and was stationed in Germany from 1954-1957. He served with the values of strength, dedication, and a quiet, steady presence that spoke volumes.

They met at The Traveler's Lodge in Barnesville where with a twinkle in his eye and a love for the dance floor, DuWayne asked his beloved wife Darlene for a dance, igniting a partnership that lasted a lifetime.

His skilled hands and warm heart led him to a 46-year career as a plumber, spending 35 years at Peterson Plumbing and then 11 years at Moorhead Plumbing. He retired at the age of 69.

DuWayne cherished simple pleasures like watching his grandchildren's sports activities, taking on projects with his children, and tending to the great outdoors.
