Remembering Rodrick

Rodrick Lamont Battle, son of Rodrick Nelson and Regina Battle McNeil, was born February 11, 1998 in Wilson, North Carolina. His earthly journey ended on Saturday, April 30, 2022 as he was called to his eternal rest. Reared in Nash County, NC he received his formative education from the Nash County Public School System where he graduated from Nash Central High School in the class of 2016. After high school Rodrick began working in production and was employed by Pfizer. It was work he really enjoyed as he was able to tests for COVID-19. Very smart and intelligent, Rodrick was dedicated and resourceful in everything that he did. He loved driving trucks and owned his own business, "Sign to the Grind". He was a full-time father who always made certain that the needs of his family were taken care of.

Humble, loving and giving, Rodrick enjoyed life and the many pleasures he received from family, friends and his work. He especially enjoyed spending time with his children, for he loved each one with his whole heart. Well mannered and a complete gentleman, Rodrick loved taking care of others, always giving and never taking. To know him was to love him. He was funny and adorable. He loved to do the things that young people do; watch sports, play video games and wear the latest fashions. A dear beloved heart is now at rest to always be remembered with love and thankfulness. He was preceded in death by his aunt, Chaquetta Battle.

Precious memories are forever cherished by his Mother, Regina Battle McNeil and her husband Cornelius of Rocky Mount, NC; his father, Rodrick Nelson of Wilson, NC; his adorable children, Adrien Lamont Battle and Lehlani Alexis Battle and the mother of his children, Lauren Howlett of Rocky Mount, NC; two sisters, Delwana Battle and DaQwilla Pope of Wilson, NC; three brothers, Atalis Pope of Wilson, NC, Danyell Pope and Clarence Battle of Rocky Mount, NC; one step brother, Keyshuwn Boose; maternal grandparents, Rosa Eatmon and Jerry Eatmon; paternal grandmother, Mildred Nelson; great grandmother, Hattie Smith; two aunts, Rosetta Battle and Angel Nelson of Wilson, NC; one uncle, Eddie Battle of Wilson, NC; one great uncle, Moses Battle of Wilson, NC; one niece, Nobiona Jackson; special cousins, Asia Battle, Briona Battle, Demont Battle, Jesson Battle, Jamichel Battle, Octavis Battle, Skii Battle, Talaya Hines, Hendrick White and Jahmir White; a hosts of other relatives and friends.
