

The LORD is my Shepherd;
 I shall not want.
 He maketh me to
 lie down in green pastures:
 He leadeth me beside the still waters,
 He restoreth my
soul:
 He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.
I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;
 Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies
 Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me
 all the days of my life;
 And I will dwell in the house
 of the LORD forever.
 - Psalm 23

REMEMBERING THE LIFE OF...

Clark Dennis Berg, 73, passed away peacefully on April 16th in his home.

Clark was born March 20, 1953, in Barnesville, MN, to Clarence & Gladys (Haugtvedt) Berg. He grew up in rural Barnesville and later moved to Pelican Rapids with his family, where he made many lasting memories.

He attended Barnesville and Pelican schools through 9th grade. He later attended tech school in Detroit Lakes, where he received a degree in small engines and marine.

Clark had a lifelong love for John Deere tractors, old cars, and pickups, and a natural knack for bringing them back to life. He worked on them up until the day he died.

Clark met Cindy Budke, and they were married in 1982. A few years later, they welcomed their first son, Colin, and Lucas followed two years later.

He enjoyed taking his boys fishing when they were young and teaching them how to work on old cars and tractors. He also brought them to Rollag every year for the Western Minnesota Steam Threshers Reunion, a tradition they look forward to carrying on.

Clark started doing autobody work for Jerry Leaf in Pelican Rapids. After that, he worked in maintenance at WCT. He later finished his career at Berg Autobody in Barnesville, working alongside his son Lucas.

Later in life, Clark was blessed with three granddaughters: Evelyn, Nova, and Lucy. They were truly his pride and joy. He cherished his time with them, and they always looked forward to his visits—especially when he would bring donut holes and mints.

Clark is preceded in death by his parents, Clarence and Gladys; his brothers, Roger and Charlie; his sister, Linda; as well as nephews Kenneth Berg and Scott Rice, and niece Tammy Pfeifer.

Clark is survived by his sons, Colin (Bethany) Berg and their daughter Nova, and Lucas (Allison) Berg and their daughters Evelyn and Lucy. His brothers Donald (Deloris) Berg, David (Cathy) Berg, Richard (Linda) Berg, brother-in-law Lynn Strubbe, sister-in-law Gaylene Berg, and many nieces and nephews.
