

For those I Love...

for those who Love Me

When I am gone, release me, let me go-

I have so many things to see and do.

You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears.

Be happy that we had so many years.

I gave you my love.

You can only guess how much you gave to me in happiness,

I thank you for the love you each have shown,

But now it's time I traveled alone.

So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must;

Then let your grief be comforted by trust.

It's only for a while we must part.

So bless the memories that lie within your heart.

I won't be far away, for life goes on.

So if you need me call and I will come -

Tho you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near.

All of my love around you soft and clear.

And then when you come this way alone -

I'll greet you with a smile and "Welcome Home."

Glenn's favorite spot - Olaf Lake

IN LOVING MEMORY OF

Glenn Davis Nelson

FUNERAL SERVICE

Thursday, June 11, 2026-11:00 a.m.

Trinity Lutheran Church
Pelican Rapids, Minnesota

CLERGY

Pastor Kyle Conant

MUSIC

Organist-Vicki Johnson

— Congregational Hymns —
"Amazing Grace"

Duet-Laura Hagen and Lee Brenna-Guitarist

"On Eagles Wings"
"How Great Thou Art"

SPECIAL RECORDED MUSIC

"The Fall"

PALLBEARERS

Richard Narveson, Billy Wells, Matt Nelson, Shawn Nelson
Ryan Nelson, Jason Nelson, Keith Nelson

HONORARY PALLBEARERS

Ramsey (Shauntel), Brock and Brooklyn

INTERMENT

Ringsaker Cemetery
Pelican Rapids, Minnesota

Glenn's family gratefully acknowledges your attendance and many kind expressions of sympathy during their time of loss and invite you to join them for lunch and fellowship following the service.

Arrangements by Larson
Funeral and Cremation Service
12 5th Avenue NE, Pelican Rapids, Minnesota

REMEMBERING THE LIFE OF...

Glenn Davis Nelson, 77, of Pelican Rapids, Minnesota, passed away on May 28, 2026.

Glen was born on January 27, 1949, in Pelican, Minnesota, to Neil Byron Nelson and Edna Josephine (Ness) Nelson. He graduated from Pelican Rapids High School in 1967. On June 20, 1968, Glen was drafted into the U.S. Army, serving until his honorable discharge as an E-5 on January 22, 1970.

Glen was a hard worker his whole life. He got his start at the Greene's Hatchery, then learned the plumbing and heating trade at Engebretson Plumbing & Heating, which gave him the know-how to open his own business, Nelson Plumbing & Heating. After that, he spent nearly 30 years carrying the mail for the U.S. Postal Service, a job that suited a man who liked knowing everybody in town.

Glen gave a lot back to his community, too. He proudly served as Commander of the local VFW and was a dedicated member of the Fire Department for 22 years, always ready to step up and lend a hand.

And Glen did have his routine. Most mornings started at the post office to grab his mail, then over to the pool hall for a cup of coffee and to catch up on all the news with his pool hall gang. From there he would take a drive around town, rolling past his siblings' homes, sometimes stopping in and sometimes just waving as he went by. That was Glen.

His favorite part of any day, though, was heading out to Eric and Rhonda's. He had a real soft spot for their pets, Jessie, Riley, Thor, and Copper, who he affectionately called "Poopy." Glen made sure every one of them was fed and never ran short on treats. He would crack open a few beers and wait for everybody to get home from their busy days, always wanting to hear how things had gone.

More than anything, Glen loved his family and the time he got to spend with his grandkids. He liked to bowl, golfed in his younger years, and never lost his love of deer hunting. You could usually count on finding him in front of the TV for a Vikings game or some golf.

Glen is survived by his son, Eric (Rhonda); his grandchildren, Ramsey (and his fiancée, Shauntel), Brock, and Brooklyn; his siblings, Stan (Carolyn), Byron (Patty), Yvonne Wells, Leroy, Gail (Randy) Narveson, and Lita; along with many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Neil and Edna; his brothers Duane, Winton, Denny, and Mark; his sisters Ruthie and Karen; and his sister-in-law, Josephine.

Blessed Be The Memory Of Glenn Davis Nelson

In Loving Memory

Glenn Davis Nelson
January 27, 1949 - May 28, 2026