

In Loving Memory
Susan Ellen Hasz

Date of Birth
November 11, 1941

Date of Death
February 15, 2024

Memorial Service

10:30 A.M. Saturday, March 2, 2024

Church of the Nazarene
Ellendale, North Dakota

Officiating: Pastor Kelly Riggan

Pianist: Marilou Uecker

Recorded Music: Nat King Cole
"Unforgettable"

Soloist: Paul Betting
"The Old Rugged Cross"

Congregational Singing

"How Great Thou Art"
"The Blessing"

Urn Bearers

Jennifer Glynn
Sydnie Hustoft
Taylor Kemmet
Chase Kemmet

Samantha Hustoft
Olivia Hustoft
Riley Kemmet
Evan Hovey

Honorary Urn Bearers

Mary Filbert-Loewen
Charlotte Glynn

Burial

Burial includes daughter, Shellie Hovey
Ellendale City Cemetery
Ellendale, North Dakota

Arrangements by

Hoven Funeral Chapel
Ellendale, North Dakota

Song -

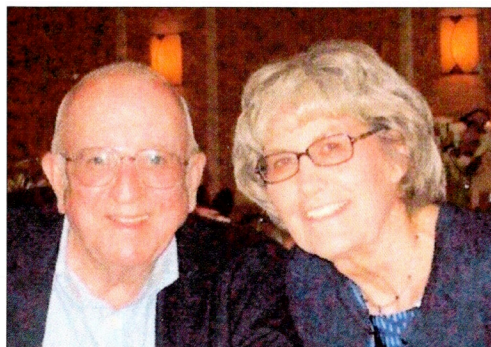

- Little Bird on my window
Will you sing me a song
When you fly over meadows,
Will you take me along,
There are beautiful flowers, I can see by my door.
But if I could go flying,
I could see many more.

- Song by Shellie, Lauri, Kira
and Jennifer,
as children

Susan Ellen (Courts) Hasz, 82 of Ellendale, ND, died peacefully with her daughter, Lauri, and her friend, Mary, at her side on February 15, 2024, at Oakes Good Samaritan Society, Oakes, ND.

Susan was born on November 11, 1941, in Windom, MN to George and Minnie Courts. She was the eldest of their two daughters of their blended family of eventually seven children. With their parents, Susan and younger sister, Nancy, wintered in Weslaco, TX and summered in Windom, MN. She had many fond memories of their travels back and forth, always stopping to visit family in Okeene, Oklahoma. She graduated from Weslaco High School in 1960. After graduation, she moved to Minneapolis and attended Northwestern Bible College in St. Paul, MN for a year and then worked in downtown Minneapolis. She met Dennis Hasz and was married at First Baptist Church of Windom, MN in September 1963. Susan and Dennis eventually settled in Ellendale, ND, to farm with Denny's parents. They raised their three daughters, Shellie, Lauri, Kimberly, and their granddaughter, Jennifer, and greatly enjoyed the love and activities of their children and grandchildren. Susan worked at Dickey County Social Services in Ellendale and made good friends while working there. She also loved telling children about the love of Jesus as a Sunday school teacher at the United Methodist Church. Susan is remembered for her gentle spirit, kind ways and love for her family and their dogs.

Susan is survived by daughters, Lauri (Scott) Uecker, Kimberly (Wade) Kemmet, and son-in-law Dean Hovey. Grandchildren Jennifer (Kirk) Glynn, Evan Hovey, Samantha, Sydnie, and Olivia Hustoft, Melanie Filbert, Taylor, Riley, and Chase Kemmet; great grandchildren Kadince and Kimber Glynn, Quinley Nelson and Hunter Filbert; sister Nancy (Don) Gilberg and brother Tom (Michelle) Courts plus many other relatives and friends.

Preceded in death are her husband, Dennis, daughter, Shellie Hovey, and infant daughter, Tamara Lee; parents, George and Minnie Courts, one brother and three sisters.

In Loving Memory

Susan Ellen Hasz

1941 ~ 2024