

I'm Going Home

My heav'nly home is bright and fair,
Nor pain nor death can enter there:
Its glitt'ring tow'rs the sun out-shine;
That heav'nly mansion shall be mine.

My Father's house is built on high,
Far, far above the starry sky;
When from this earthly prison free,
That heav'nly mansion mine shall be.

Let others seek a home below,
Which flames devour, or waves o'er flow,
Be mine a happier lot to own
A heav'nly mansion near the throne.

I'm going home, I'm going home,
I'm going home to die no more!
To die no more, to die no more,
I'm going home to die no more.
