Cheryl Ann Kassahn was born on November 19, 1969, in Wheaton, Minnesota, to Virgil and Delores (Yannayon) Kassahn. She later moved to Hankinson, North Dakota, to live with her sister and brother-in-law, Jean and Phil Meyer, and graduated from Hankinson High School.

On August 14, 1993, Cheryl married Greg Campbell. Three children were born to this union: Adam, Amanda, and Emily.

Cheryl worked as a Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA) for many years and, most recently, was employed at Minn-Dak.

Family was at the heart of Cheryl's life. She especially cherished spending time with her children and grandchildren. She loved gardening, baking, and teaching her grandchildren how to bake, creating special memories that they will carry with them for years to come. Cheryl also enjoyed taking walks, breathing in the fresh air, appreciating the beauty of nature, and spending time reading.

Cheryl faced an incredibly difficult seven-month-and-sixteen-day battle with ALS, also known as Lou Gehrig's disease. Her journey was made even more heartbreaking by the loss of her son, Adam, who had battled the same disease years earlier. Through her own battle, Cheryl showed tremendous strength and courage.

Cheryl will be remembered for her love of family, the time she spent creating memories with her grandchildren, and the many lives she touched throughout her life. She will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her.

In Loving Memory Of

Cheryl Ann Campbell

November 19, 1969 ~ October 26, 2026

The Lord is my shepherd, I lack nothing. He makes me lie down in green pastures, he leads me beside quiet waters, he refreshes my soul. He guides me along the right paths for his name's sake. Even though I walk through the darkest valley, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. Surely your goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord.
