

Obituary

Harriet was born in Morris, Minnesota, and graduated from Hancock High School. She spent most of her life devoted to caring for others, working as a nurse and later in homes for individuals with disabilities. Her compassion, steadiness, and gentle strength touched countless lives.

Family was the center of Harriet's world. She treasured time spent fishing, playing cards, sewing, and listening to music. Her strong faith in Christ guided her throughout her life and remained a source of comfort and purpose.

Harriet was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Robert, as well as her parents and her brother. She is survived by her sons John, David, Rory (Hope), and Monty Amundson; her siblings Gerald Hoffman, Carol Skarsten, Luverne (Mary) Hoffman, and Joyce (Rolf) Standfuss; her grandchildren Anna (Tyler) Bakkila, Nicole Estensen, Kaitlin Amundson, Addison Amundson, and Tayden Amundson; and many great-grandchildren, nieces, and nephews.

Harriet will be remembered for her kindness, her devotion to others, and the love she shared so generously with her family and community.

God is my light in the darkness
God is my peace in anguish
God is my joy in sadness
God is my strength in weakness
God is my guide in the storm
God is my refuge in anxiety
God is the one who gives me the air I breathe
God reminds me that I am never alone and
He will always be there for me in the good times and the bad.
