The Obituary

Mother Bertha Williams Wallace, daughter of the late James and Lorenner Williams, was born January 6, 1944 in Wilson, North Carolina. She peacefully departed this earthly life on Friday, March 4, 2022 as she was called to her eternal rest. Along with her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Bobby Wallace. Bertha was reared in Wilson, North Carolina where she received her formative education from the Wilson County Public School System. She graduated from Charles H. Darden High School in the class of 1962.

Believing in the love of God, Mother Wallace carried that spirit with her in her daily living. She was a devoted member of St. Paul Church of Christ, Disciples of Christ Church where she worshipped, served and carried out the spirit of God's word under the Christian leadership of Bishop Chester L. Aycock. She graduated from the Goldsboro-Raleigh Institute, certified as a Mother. She served as treasurer of the Mission Board, vice president of the Mother Board and was member of the St. Paul Senior Choir.

Loving and lasting memories are forever cherished by her children, Angela Parker, Benita Riggins, Todd Davis (Joyce), Shannon Deans (Calvin) and Sebrenna Lister (Aaron); sixteen grandchildren; sixteen great-great grandchildren; five sisters, Addie Eatmon, Catherine Anderson (John), Dorothy Barnes, Deborah Ruffin (Purcell) and Gwendolyn Ballard (Forrest); two brothers, Maurice Williams (Helen) and Garrett Williams; one brother-in-law, Freddie Wallace (Barbara); three aunts, Doretha Mitchell, Mary Ellis and Annie Sanders; two special god-children, Patricia Atkinson and Sonya Harris; a host of nieces, nephews, saints, other relatives and friends.

Until We Meet Again

We think about you always, we talk about you still.

You have never been forgotten, and you never will.

We hold you close within our hearts and there you will remain,

To walk and guide us through our lives,

Until we meet again.

Bertha Bee Wallace
