These are my tiny footprints,
So perfect and so small.
These tiny footprints
Never touched the ground at all.
Not one tiny footprint, for now I have wings
These tiny footprints were meant for other things.
You will hear my tiny footprints
In the patter of the rain. Gentle drops like angel tears.
Of joy and not from pain. You will see my tiny footprints,
Each butterfly's lazy dance. I'll let you know I'm with you,
If you just give me the chance. You will see my tiny footprints
In the rustle of the leaves.
I will whisper names into the wind,
And call each one that grieves.
Most of all, these tiny footprints,
Are found on your hearts.
Because even though I'm gone now,
We'll never truly part.

August Maine Anliker grew wings and met our Lord before his birth on June 25, 2024 at 8:45AM at Sanford Hospital, Bismarck, ND. He was the son of Wade and Josie Anliker. August was 4.9 pounds and 19 inches long with a head full of hair.

August "Auggie" was a little stinker during ultrasounds. He was very camera shy, rarely allowing anyone to view his precious little face. What Auggie had in his mother's demeanor he had his father's energy as he was always on the move. He loved music with a preference for rock. As soon as his mother would sing or play certain songs he would begin to move. He enjoyed punching his father, having his dogs Mavis and Daisy cuddle him, gently nudging them to show he was there and hearing their little barks. He was a little piece of Heaven, a wonderful bundle of joy. Although his time on earth may have been short, he was loved very deeply by those around him.

Auggie is survived by his parents: Wade and Josie Anliker, maternal grandparents, Dennis and Tammera Stebner; paternal grandparents Troy and Stacey Anliker, aunts, uncles and several cousins. He was preceded in death by aunt Leslie Danielson; great grandparents Margie Bohl, Ida and Otto Stebner and paternal great grandparents Warren and Shirley Snyder.
