The Obituary

Booker T. Richardson was born April 7, 1932 in Monroe, North Carolina. He was the seventh child of ten children born to Henry Mack Richardson, Sr. and Sarah Ann Robinson. He peacefully passed away on his birthday after a brief illness. He was called to his eternal rest on Thursday, April 7, 2022 surrounded by his loved ones. Booker T. was truly blessed and he blessed others by his love and compassionate spirit. He had an earthly birth on April 7, 1932 and a heavenly birth on April 7, 2022, exactly 90 years. He was reared in Union County, North Carolina where he received his education from the Union County Public School System. A resourceful and willing worker, he helped his family by working in the fields. He eventually made his way to New York where he worked several different jobs. Dedicated and resourceful, he always put his all into whatever he did. His final employment was with Jelrus Air Tech where he worked for over thirty-three years. He enjoyed his work and the fellowship he received from his co-workers.

Loving, giving and devoted, Booker T. loved life and the many pleasures he received from family and friends. He met the love of his life, Delores Hepler while in New York. They married in 1953 and remained married for 56 years. To this union they were blessed with three lovely daughters, six grandchildren, three great grandchildren and one great great grandchild. Booker loved doing things with his hands, always fixing things for family and friends or working in his garden growing all types of flowers. He was like a second dad to the neighborhood kids, who looked up to him with much love and respect. Booker believed in the love of God, he and his wife united with fellowship and ministries of the Tabernacle of Prayer church where they worshipped and served for many years. Booker loved the joy and peace he received there. He was a good man, always there for his family. We will always cherish our memories of him. He will be truly missed but always remembered with love and gratefulness.

Along with his parents, he was preceded in death by his devoted wife, Delores; his daughter, Yvette Charrington; a grandson, Raymond Addison; two sisters, Allie Ragin and Carrie Mae Ragin; and five brothers, John Roy, Henry Mack, Jr., Jimmy Lee, Joe Lee and Coy Mack.

Loving and lasting memories are cherished by his daughters, Lynda Chapman of Wilson, NC and Loretta (Diane) Richardson of Jamaica, NY; two sisters, Nettie Blake and Eleese Blakney; his grandchildren, Gregory Gilmore, Anica Daye, Azure Smith, Kevin, Craig Richardson and Larry Addison, II; his great grandchildren; one great great grandchild; one son-in-law, Michael Chapman; a special person Elizabeth Hendrickson of Mass; many nieces, nephews and extended family and friends.

*I never said Goodbye to you,
Instead I said "I love you" ...*

*As you departed on your journey
To a place where life is new.*

*I held your hand and kissed you.
Your leaving made me cry.*

*But in the end,
I know I'll see you again...*

So, I never said goodbye.
