

Lois Eldora Carlson was born on January 19, 1926, the only child of Edwin and Lillian (Anderson) Carlson. She was baptized on May 28, 1926, and confirmed on June 2, 1940. Lois attended District 52 country school through the eighth grade and graduated from Wheaton High School in 1944.

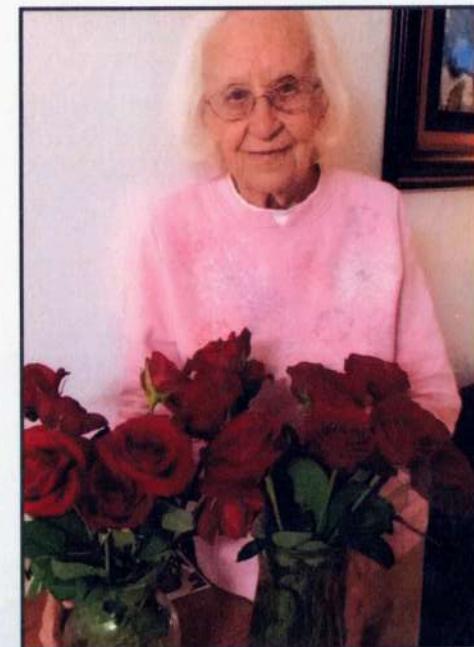

In 1945, she married Dale Totzke; the couple later divorced. She married Robert Totzke in 1956 and lovingly became a mother to his three daughters, Katherine, Sandra, and Carol. Lois and Robert made their home in Minot, North Dakota, where she was employed at Sears. They later returned to Wheaton, and Robert passed away in 1987. Lois married Webber Anderson in 1989. Webber passed away in 2015.

Lois was preceded in death by her parents; husband Robert; husband Webber Anderson; daughter Katherine; and grandchildren: Brenda Anderson, Laurie McFadden and Leslie Fuller; great-grandson Billy Connelly; and son-in-law Terrence Lee O'Shea.

Lois is survived by numerous step-children and their families.

If Roses Grow In Heaven

*If roses grow in Heaven,
Lord, pick a bunch for me.*

*Place them in her arms,
and tell her they're from me.*

*Tell her that I love and miss her,
and when she turns to smile,
Place a kiss upon her cheek
and hold her for a while.*

*Because remembering her is easy,
I do it every day.*

*There's an ache within my heart,
that will...never...go...away.*
