To the Family
It appears that nothing surpasses
All your grief and despair
But God is a mighty refuge
And your loved one is in His care

The Obituary

Ronald Tyrone Summerville, son of George Summerville and June Hopkins Summerville, was born May 30, 1949 in Baltimore, Maryland. His earthly journey ended peacefully on March 12, 2022 as he was called to his eternal rest. Along with his parents, he was preceded in death by his son, Corey Summerville and seven brothers and sisters. Ronald, affectionately known as, "Nature Boy" attended the public schools of Baltimore where he was an alumni and football star of Southern High School. He was also known as a singer, entertainer and showman on and off the stage. He started on stage at the age of fourteen and continued his life's journey in all sorts of adventures, in his unique life-style. That was him. Kind to all he met and truly a warm and welcoming gentleman. We are blessed to have experienced him and know that his warm love and legacy are forever woven in our hearts.

Remembering him with much love are his daughter, Dania Kevin; his sons, Ronnie, Jr., Timmy and Sergio; six grandchildren, Lance, Casey, Sion, Saniya, Armand and Trittiana; two sisters, Posie and Bridgete; three brothers, Zack, Omar (Kim) and William; a host of relatives of Baltimore; he also leaves to remember him with much love his soul mate of forty-five years, Irish Shaw; kids and grandkids of North Carolina, Sergio, Candy, Maze, Gavin, Diamond, Lamont, Jammarian, Keyshaun and Kai; lifelong friends, Willie Whitney and Bill Harding; special associates and friends, Sleepy, Toni, and Toby; god daughters, Nikki, Kierra and Chance.

Ronald will be loved, cherished, and missed forever.

REST in PEACE, Nature Boy.

From your North Carolina Family.
