

Teri L. Verduyn of Fargo, ND was born May 16, 1954, and passed away on June 30, 2025. Teri was a devout member of her church and dedicated to mission work across the globe. Teri grew up in Plymouth, IN, and graduated from Plymouth High School.

Throughout her life, she was a steadfast believer in bettering herself by furthering her education by studying nursing at the University of Iowa, earning her MBA from the University of Minnesota, and later graduating with a master's in Biblical Studies at Dallas Theological Seminary. Teri had a love for scrapbooking, traveling, NASCAR, playing games, seeing movies, and supporting her church.

Teri loved to travel and experience new places and people. She visited all 50 states, all 7 continents, and over 20 countries. She enjoyed planning the journey as much as she enjoyed experiencing the journey.

Through all her experiences, Teri liked to help people know and experience the saving grace of Jesus. Whether that was through the AWANA ministry, encouraging kids to memorize Bible verses every week, sending crayons to another country, teaching the EvangeCube, or leading a Bible study, she always wanted the people involved to know Jesus.

Teri is preceded in death by her parents, Edwin and Neva Botsford, and her brother, Michael Botsford.

She is survived in death by her husband Norbert, son Justin and wife Alice, daughter Elizabeth and husband Mike, grandchildren Lucy, Theodore, Alfred, and Benjamin; sister, Cathy; brother, Steven; and many other family members and loved ones.
