Grandmother

*If roses grow in Heaven, Lord
Please pick a bunch for me
Place them in my Grandma's arms
And tell her they're from me,
Tell her I love her and miss her
And when she turns to smile
Place a kiss upon her cheek
And hold her for awhile.
Love, Your Grandchildren*

As Your Sister

*Always remember...
I loved you yesterday
I love you today
I always have
I always will*

OUR MOM

*Our mom gave us the world
Put it right at our feet
And with her at our side
There is nothing we cannot beat*

*Our mom was a woman
Who taught us to never lose sight
Though times may seem helpless
She taught us how to fight*

*She has shown us how
Through times of much sorrow
To look to the future
And new days of tomorrow*

*Even though times may be hard
And all we feel is pain
Remember, this too shall pass
Even the clouds and the rain*

*So it is with heavy hearts
And tears in our eyes
That we lay her down to rest
And say our last goodbyes*

The Obituary

Jacqueline Jackson Smith, daughter of the late Johnnie James Jackson and Geraldine Hatcher Jackson, was born August 24, 1965 in Wilson, North Carolina. Her earthly journey peacefully ended on Saturday, March 5, 2022 as she was called to her eternal home. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her brother, Genny R. Woodard and her sister, Gloria Ann Woodard. Jackie, as she was affectionately called by family and friends, spent her formative years in Wilson, North Carolina where she received her education from the Wilson County Public School System. A dedicated and resourceful worker, Jackie was employed by Linpac Plastics where she worked for many years. She thought it was in her best interest to retire and care for her mother and her sister.

Devoted, with a compassionate spirit, Jackie was a loving mother, sister, grandmother and dear friend, and she enjoyed spending time with, loving and caring for each one. To know her was to love her. She believed in the love of God and carried that spirit with her in her daily life. She enjoyed the ministries and fellowship at Mt. Zion Free Will Baptist Church where she worshipped and served. A dear beloved heart is now at rest to always be remembered with love and thankfulness.

Loving and lasting memories will be forever cherished by her children, Michael Karrel Smith and his wife Lisa, Quashanna Nicole Smith and Kaci Denise Smith-Frieson and her husband Thomas; two sisters, Louvenia Jackson Hassell and Darlene Jackson; three brothers, Larry D. Woodard, Leon Woodard and Ronald Jackson, all of Wilson, NC; one uncle, Jerry Hatcher; seven grandchildren that she truly loved and would always say that they were her blessings; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends, including a very special friend and riding partner, Brenda Harris.
