

Alice Regina Pausch

Alice Regina Rose Mary Meyer Pausch was born on January 3, 1929, at Red Lake Indian Reservation, MN, where her parents were employed. She was the daughter of Clara L. Holm and Joseph R. Meyer. She moved with her family to Wahpeton, ND, when she was three years old. She attended grade school at St. John's Catholic School and graduated from Wahpeton High School in 1946. On September 27, 1949, she was united in marriage to Virgil Pausch, of Mooreton, ND, at St. John's Catholic Church in Wahpeton. They resided on a farm south of Mooreton. After Virgil passed away on March 17, 2010, Alice became a resident of St. Francis Nursing Home, Breckenridge.

Alice attended the North Dakota State College of Science for one year and was employed by County Auditor, Odin Wold, at Richland County Courthouse.

She was a member of Mooreton American Legion Auxiliary. When her children were in grade school, she was involved in church activities and teaching religious education. She was an excellent cook and seamstress!

Alice is survived by her son Craig (Diane) Pausch; daughters, Carol Ann Pausch and Sharon (Dan) Berg; 5 grandchildren; 16 great-grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Virgil Pausch; her parents, Joseph and Clara; and her sisters, Emma Wolfe, Rose Moore, and Clarabelle Meyer; her brother, Joe Meyer who was killed in the Korean war; and her parents-in-law, Henry and Theresa Pausch.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes are filled with tears for me.

I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today, while thinking of the many things we didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time you think of me I know you'll miss me too.
But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand, that an angel came and called my name and took me by the hand.

And said my place was ready in Heaven far above, and that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love.

But as I turned to walk away a tear fell from my eye, for all my life, I'd always thought I didn't want to die.

I had so much to live for so much left yet to do, it seemed almost impossible that I was leaving you.

I thought of all my yesterdays than good ones and the bad,
I thought of all the love we shared and all the fun we had.

If I could relive yesterday just even for awhile,
I'd say good-bye and kiss you and maybe see you smile.

But then I fully realized that this could never be,
for emptiness and memories would take the place of me.
And when I thought of worldly things I might miss come tomorrow,
I thought of you, and when I did my heart was filled with sorrow.

But when I walked through Heaven's gate I felt so much at home, when God looked down and smiled at me from His great golden throne.
He said "This is eternity and all I promised you, today your life on earth is past but here it starts anew. I promise no tomorrow but today will always last, and since each day's the same way there's no longing for the past. You have been so faithful so trusting and so true, though there were times you did some things you knew you shouldn't do. But you have been forgiven and now at last you're free, so won't you come and take my hand and share my life with me?"

So when tomorrow starts without me don't think we're far apart, for every time you think of me I'm right here in your heart.
