To the Family

*It appears that nothing surpasses
All your grief and despair
But God is a mighty refuge
And your loved one is in His care*

The Trucker's Last Ride

He traveled the roads
In years gone past
A life he chose and
Hoped it would last.

Driving all night
From state to state
Trying to get home
And arriving so late.

He parked his truck now
His engine has stopped
And those who love him
Their hearts have dropped.

He traveled the country
With a smile of great pride
Now he drives the streets of Heaven
On the truckers' last ride.

"MAY GOD RIDE WITH YOU...
10-4 AND GOODBYE"

Remembering Ricky

"Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning" ~ Psalm 30:5

Ricky Lorenzo Coleman, son of Woodard Earl Coleman, Sr. and Grace Horton Coleman, was born August 4, 1968 in Wilson, North Carolina. God in His infinite wisdom and unfailing power called him to eternal rest on Friday, April 22, 2022 as he peacefully departed this earthly life. Ricky was blessed to have lived fifty-three years. Along with his father, he was preceded in death by his grandparents and his brother Woodard Earl Coleman, Jr. Reared in Wilson, Ricky, affectionately called "Little Ricky", received his formative education from the Wilson County Public School System where he attended James B. Hunt High School. An athlete at heart, he enjoyed wrestling and playing Baseball. After high school he began driving long distance trucks. A job he loved, he was able to visit and view this beautiful country. It gave him a sense of relief, relaxation and peace.

A lover of life and good will, Ricky was devoted, kind and compassionate. He enjoyed life through the many joys and pleasures he received from his family and friends. A good man, always smiling, laughing, joking and sharing life's stories. He loved his family dearly and held a special place in his heart for each one. He was willing to assist anyone in doing whatever was needed. To know Ricky was to love him. He was a great cook, loved fishing and doing things that young folk do, wearing the latest fashions, detailing his car, watching sports and riding his horses. Ricky was loved and will be dearly missed but always remembered with joy and adoration.

Precious memories are forever cherished by his wife, Annie C. McLaurin Coleman; his daughter, Mia Shante Williams; his stepdaughter, Crystal D. Williams; special granddaughter, Cailyn Williams Holt; five sons, Mycal King and his wife Charlene, Marquez, Dontres, Dayquan and Marqise Coleman; his sister, Stephanie Coleman; his brother, Timothy Coleman and his wife Doris; special step grandchild, Jaiden Williams; other step children; aunts; uncles; and very special cousins friends, Henry Coleman, Joe Coleman, Alexander Coleman, Big Ricky Coleman and Freddy Coleman.
