

Obituary

Glen Marse Hull was born on February 3, 1939 in Sisseton, SD, the son of Ralph and Gladys (Bue) Hull. He was baptized and confirmed at Grace Lutheran in Sisseton.

Glen attended school in Sisseton, and worked at the family business until enlisting in the United States Air Force in 1956. He served until 1960 and returned home to Sisseton, where he met and married Jeannette (Biederstedt) Hull.

The couple then moved to Chisholm, MN where Glen was the administrator of Buchanan Nursing Home. It was in Chisholm where they had two boys; Scott in 1967, and Chris in 1973. They returned to Sisseton in 1978 to run Tekakwitha Nursing Home. Glen was the assistant administrator and administrator for many years and continued to work for the Oblate Fathers until retirement.

Glen loved working on old cars. He would return them to pristine condition, only to sell them and start over.

He loved lawn care and would strive to make his yard look perfect.

"Make it look like Yankee Stadium" was a term he took from Milton Cameron that was commonly heard. He achieved this task with the help of his beloved assistant, Sister Phyllis Faust.

Glen had a love for dogs, mainly labs, and had a few legendary ones. His black lab Missy was a mainstay at the nursing home.

Glen's love of people and community was evident in his public service. He served several terms on the Sisseton School Board and the Roberts County Commission.

Most of all, Glen loved helping people. Whether it was a couple bucks until payday, a ride somewhere, sage advice, or just some time and an ear, he was there with a smile. Many a holiday evening was spent with an ex-classmate or friend because they had nowhere else to go.

"At the end of the day, you gotta be a good guy," was his advice. Glen Hull checks that box.

Glen is survived by his son, Scott and daughter-in-law, Dana (Cochrane) of Isabella, Minnesota; his son, Chris and daughter-in-law, Melissa (Schofield), and granddaughter, Charlotte, of Pierre, South Dakota; his brother, Bob and sister-in-law, Colette of Sisseton; his sister, Cleo and brother-in-law, Kenny Reitan of Wahpeton, North Dakota; and several nieces.

Glen was preceded in death by his parents; brothers: Wendell and Kenny; and infant sister, Cleo Adaire.

A special thank you to Bobbi Jo Hamm, formerly of Edgewood and Holly Anderson and the staff of Tekakwitha Nursing Home for the extra mile.

Somebody's Mother

The woman was old and ragged and gray - And bent with the chill of the Winter's day.
 The street was wet with a recent snow - And the woman's feet were aged and slow.
 She stood at the crossing and waited long, Alone, uncared for, amid the throng
 Of human beings who passed her by - Nor heeded the glance of her anxious eyes.
 Down the street, with laughter and shout, Glad in the freedom of "school let out,"
 Came the boys like a flock of sheep, Hailing the snow piled white and deep.
 Past the woman so old and gray - Hastened the children on their way.
 Nor offered a helping hand to her - So meek, so timid, afraid to stir
 Lest the carriage wheels or the horses' feet - Should crowd her down in the slippery street.
 At last came one of the merry troop, The gayest laddie of all the group:
 He paused beside her and whispered low, "I'll help you cross, if you wish to go.
 "Her aged hand on his strong young arm - She placed, and so, without hurt or harm,
 He guided the trembling feet along, Proud that his own were firm and strong.
 Then back again to his friends he went, His young heart happy and well content.
 "She's somebody's mother, boys, you know, For all she's aged and poor and slow.
 "And I hope some fellow will lend a hand - To help my mother, you understand,
 "If ever she's poor and old and gray, When her own dear boy is far away."
 And "somebody's mother" bowed low her head - In her home that night, and the prayer she said
 Was "God be kind to the noble boy, Who is somebody's son, and pride and joy!"
