

On October 4th, 2023, Zachary and April Woltjer were blessed with God's greatest gift when Addyson Rebecca Woltjer came into this world at 3:59 p.m. She weighed 6lbs 5oz, was 19.29" long, had a head full of hair, and beautiful blue eyes. Addyson was the perfect combination of her parents; a spitting image of her father, with dark locks and a cute button nose she had her mother's hands as well as her fierceness and strength. Addyson was loved and adored by all those that were blessed to meet her, and those that never got the chance.

Zach and April decided to share her beauty with others by donating her heart valves and tissues, knowing her memory will live on. Although Addyson's time on earth was short, she filled a room with warmth and brightness like the sun, while Zach and April held her tightly with love, as the moon does with the stars every night. The tragic thing about day and night is that they can never be together for long. But in the fleeting moment where day and night do meet the world burns a brilliant orange. That is where we imagine you'll be, Addyson, radiating your light from above. You will forever be a loved and cherished daughter, granddaughter, great granddaughter, niece, great grandniece, cousin, and sister to your fur siblings. ~Written By Auntie Amanda

Addyson

As the autumn leaves fall
So do our heavy hearts
You were perfect in all of God's Art
From the tip of your teeny fingers
To the bottom of your tiny toes
Such lovely shaped eyes and adorable nose
From the moment of your birth
To your very last breath
For such a small girl
You made a huge print on this earth
When God called you home
We prayed for you to stay
But you were never alone
For part of us went with you on that fall day
We hold you close within our hearts you will never be forgotten
We love you so much
And we will think about you often
-Love, Auntie Katey
