

Wings Of The Angels

By Tim Chambers

*A gentle wind blew cross the land
Reaching out to take a hand
For on the winds the angels came
Calling out a mother's name.*

*Left behind, the children's tears
Loving memories of the years
Of joy and love, a life well spent
And now to God a mother's sent.*

*On angel's wings, a heavenly flight
The journey home, towards the light
To those who weep, a life is gone
But in God's love, 'tis but the dawn.*

Blessed Be The Memory Of Margaret Delores Lee

She is preceded in death by her husband Malcolm, her parents, and infant sister.

nieces, nephews and cousins.

She is survived by her sons Tom (Kay) Lee, William Lee, and daughter Vanessa (Dave) Sloten; sister Lois Grina; grandchildren: Tanner Lee, Fargo, ND, Larisa Sloten, Longmont, CO, Erik Sloten, Fargo, ND, Nic Schmidt, Colorado Springs, CO, and Tanner (Hope) Schmidt, Fargo, ND; great-grandchildren: Tucker and Tegan Schmidt; and several

She loved her family, books (lots of books!) and making yo-yo's. She also loved being out in nature, especially at the family cabin on Lake Lizzie. She also loved her friends, some that she met on her many travels.

Her favorite job was assistant librarian at Pelican Rapids High School where she worked for 23 years. She always enjoyed helping students with their projects.

She belonged to First Congregational Church where she taught Sunday School and worked at many events through the years. She also was a member of Pelican V.F.W. and volunteered for O.A.K.S.

She attended country school, Pelican Rapids High School, and Minnesota School of Business. She worked as a bank teller for First Federal in Minneapolis, and also as a cashier for Dayton's in Minneapolis. This is where she met her husband Malcolm of 54 years.

Margaret Tweton Lee was born in Detroit Lakes, MN on April 29, 1928 to parents Edward and Clara (Johnson) Tweton.
